

WISGOP Daily Update

--The MacIver Institute has put together an interesting piece about the soaring costs associated with employing a Milwaukee Public School teacher. For the first time in history, the average compensation for a teacher will top $100,000, nearly double the average Milwaukee family income. Watch the video

--Dems Overcharge on Brown Bag Fundraiser. RPW called out DPW today, for the exorbitant cost of $10 for their brown bag fundraiser this weekend in Madison. "After they destroyed the economic climate in this state and drove taxes through the roof, who has $10 to spend on the Democrats?" Read more

--Republican Young Professionals are gearing up with events across the state. Check out their facebook page for the latest from the RYPs. Click here.

--Americans for Prosperity is hosting the "Defending the American Dream" Summit at the Chula Vista Resort. Join Chairman Priebus and numerous other speakers on March 12th and 13th, in Wisconsin Dells. More info.

WISGOP News Clips

Congress:

Wisconsin's Paul Ryan: Congressman and Calculator

CNN Money: Obama's New Adversary: Congressman Paul Ryan

State Legislative Issues:

Wisconsin passes bill updating defender limit

Assembly delays scalping bill sought by Brewers

Wisconsin Assembly passes bills helping businesses

State Legislators:

Dems to blame for abducted transportation funds

Rep. Roth Bill Included in Jobs Plan

Rep. Nygren: Auto Insurance Repeal Voted Down

Rep. Montgomery: High-speed hypocrisy

Rep. Kaufert: Snowmobile safety bill passes Assembly

AG Van Hollen:

AG Van Hollen: Statement on Final Passage of the E-Signature Legislation

Education:

Wisconsin not among finalists for education money under Race to the Top program

Campaigns:

Former state Representative Frank Lasee, a Republican, to run for Wisconsin Senate

Ribble for CD-8. Statement on today's employment figures

Ed Thompson campaign: Thompson to sign no tax pledge