

WISGOP Daily Update

--During his live "chat" yesterday, Democrat candidate for Governor Tom Barrett chose to recite typical leftist talking points instead of answering questions about his history of high taxes and job killing policies. Read more on WISGOP News.

-- A new report found the Milwaukee Police Department is slow to probe potential incidents of voter fraud in the City, a reminder that Mayor Tom Barrett and his cronies are committed to maintaining the status quo rather than protecting the integrity of the vote. Read more on WISGOP News.

-- A.G. J.B. Van Hollen continues to work hard to fight election fraud within the state. He has filed felony charges for election fraud during the 2008 Presidential Election against five Milwaukee residents. Read more on WISGOP Blog.

--In his latest column, MilwaukeeCounty Executive Scott Walker addresses the hidden costs of the proposed $810 million high-speed rail line, saying "too many politicians confuse more government spending with economic recovery." Read more on WISGOP Blog.
